Yanks Wipe Out
Jap Nest, Then Eat
Foes' Hot Dinner

By The Associated Press

U. S. ARMY HEADQUARTERS IN THE SOUTH PACIFIC—Seven American soldiers during the New Georgia campaign captured a Japanese nest, and then ate the hot meal which the enemy had prepared.

The report by Army headquarters said the seven-man patrol was sent out to scout the terrain for information on a planned attack on Japanese strong-points.

As the men went into "no man's land" they noticed Japanese activity at a command post, and immediately began to storm it.

Pvt. George Conway of Cadiz, O., started the action by beating a nervous Japanese to the draw—a "gunny" gun against a Japanese knee mortar. Staff Sgt. Carl Koppeler of Ashland, O., joined Conway and Sgt. Earl Hawkins of Frametown, W. Va., in a fox-hole.

Then Pvt. Paige Dowe of Arnoldsburg, W. Va., circled to the protection of a fallen log as the Japanese captain of the group fired with a pistol. The pistol jammed after the first shot, and shortly thereafter Dowe killed the enemy officer.

Sgt. Arthur Richey of Steubenville, O., and Pvt. Paul Rickenhouse of Carlyle, Ill., fired continuously with Browning automatic weapons, while Pvt. Wayne Price of Houston, Tex., sniped at Japanese who showed their heads.

Then the Americans began tossing hand grenades into the three Japanese foxholes. A few minutes later, the action was over.

The Americans, none of whom was injured, counted 12 dead Japanese, including the captain and a lieutenant. The captured equipment included two machineguns, a mortar, several cases of grenades and ammunition.

But what pleased the soldiers most was the presence of cooked rice, fish, beef and crackers. The Japanese had just taken time off for their noon meal.

It was the first hot meal the Americans had enjoyed since the opening of the campaign for the Munda airfield.

Doctors Going To War

OF 180,000 DOCTORS AVAILABLE IN U. S.

42,000 WERE IN ARMED FORCES BY DEC. '42... 11,000 ARE BEING ADDED IN '43... LEAVING 127,000 FOR CIVILIAN CARE.

OF THE 127,000

72,000 ARE FULL-TIME PRIVATE DOCTORS

3,000 IN HOSPITALS

15,000 ARE IN PUBLIC HEALTH WORK

9,000 UNDER 65 COMPLETELY OR PARTIALLY IMPERFECT

28,000 ARE OVER 65 (1/3 effective)

OF THE 7,000 NEW DOCTORS TRAINED ANNUALLY... LEAVING 1,500 FOR CIVILIANS TO REPLACE 3,000 WHO DIE.

BASED ON estimates by the Office of War Information, this chart explains why the family doctor is harder to reach now than in peacetime. Adjusting the value of partially effective physicians, which are shown in the second section above, the OWI estimates that the 127,000 physicians available on the home front are the working equivalent of 108,000 fully effective medical men. If they were perfectly distributed throughout the country, there would be a ratio of one physician to every 1,557 civilians, close to the ratio of 1 to 1,500 considered by authorities to be desirable. Perfect distribution, however, is not possible for many reasons.

New Guinea Tribal
Chief Says Yanks
Can Have Munda

By The Associated Press

WANAWANA ISLAND, Sept. 17 (Delayed).—The chief of all the Munda tribes—once they were among the world's most ferocious warriors—has decided the Americans can keep Munda and all of New Georgia island, from now on, if they want it.

"Too many battles there," explained the chief, 35-year-old black-skinned John Bilimbuli. "All the natives are frightened by the noise of airplanes and bombs and shooting. We have moved here to a village we will call Maundu. It is beautiful here, and quiet. We will never go back to Munda."

"I went to Munda the other day, just to see," he continued. "All the beautiful trees were knocked down. There were great holes everywhere from shells and bombs. Hundreds of airplanes were taking off from a field on the spot where I was born."

"The Americans took me for a ride in a jeep—all around. I saw everything. It was terrible. I do not know whether I ever want to see Munda again."

John Bilimbuli spoke as he ate watermelon under a great spreading tropical tree between the Maundu village Methodist church and the beach, across five miles of water from Munda.

Italians Shot Down in Naples Streets On Slightest Pretext

By DON WHITEHEAD
AP War Correspondent

WITH THE U. S. NAVY IN THE GULF OF SALERNO, the once beautiful port of Naples is now a ravaged city of horrors.

Desperate German troops—fleeing the tortured city by terrorism—were spreading destruction, rape, and plundering women and children—driving soldiers and civilians into slave labor battalions with death for those who refuse.

This is the story brought from Naples by terrified refugees who escaped in leaking boats, raising drowning at sea rather than face the fury of their one-time allies.

Many of the refugees were not so lucky. The Germans tossed hand grenades into their boats as they attempted to slip away from the harbor or machine-gunned the frail craft.

The apparent aim of the Germans, infuriated by the Italian armistice with the United Nations on the eve of invasion, is to wreak vengeance on the Italian people and to destroy Naples as much as possible. Nothing of value remains when allied troops take the city.

Port Is A Shambles

The port is rapidly becoming a shambles, refugees say, and narrow facilities are being blasted and burned day and night. Ships are being sunk in an effort to block the harbor entrances and the waters are mined to delay the navy's making use of the harbor as a supply base for the vast armies battling to take the city.

Great clouds of smoke drift over the city and make the smoke pouring from Vesuvius seem a puny effort. The rumble of demolitions is plainly audible on the island of Capri, which is becoming a haven for hundreds of refugees.

One refugee told this story: "There are many bodies of dead Italians lying in the streets of Naples. Some of them were shot down for no reason except that they were walking the streets. I saw a German shoot an Italian soldier who still had a rifle. A young man ran to pick up the rifle and he was killed too."

"I saw a German soldier flip a cigarette butt into the street. A youth stooped to pick it up and he was shot. There is an absolute reign of terror existing. Food stores are being looted and the people are starving in their homes, afraid to come out on the street. The Germans are forcing every able bodied man to 'volunteer' for labor battalions. They are taking them north as pioneer troops and perhaps to force them to work in German factories. These people are becoming nothing more than slave laborers."

Italians Fight Fiercely

A few days after the armistice some of our troops fought the Germans in Naples. But they had little ammunition, since the Germans controlled the supplies. The Germans soon overpowered them.

Allied bombings smashed most of the harbor facilities, sank many ships in the gulf and along the docks and battered the railway terminals. What the planes did not destroy the Germans are trying to finish and from all reports they are setting the torch to many non-military buildings such as the Naples opera house.

Great fires are burning in the southern part of the city where the Germans blasted a torpedo factory, the military arsenal, gas works, engineering works and many oil storage centers around the railway yards.

Obviously Naples' primary vulnerability to the allies is its larger harbor. Since the invasion, all troops, armor, guns and supplies have been moved across the beaches in the gulf of Salerno by shallow draft amphibious operations vessels. Once Naples harbor is seized, deep draft vessels can unload cargoes at the docks, speeding up the flow of supplies and material to the army.

The food situation in Naples is the acute. No supplies are moving into the metropolis from the farms, where there are abundant harvests of grapes, apples, peaches, nuts and vegetables.

Disease has broken out among the malnourished people to increase the fear and misery. Many refugees arriving at Capri are being segregated for fear disease will spread to the little playground island. The influx of 100 to 200 persons each day is putting a strain on Capri's slender food resources.

A tremendous job lies ahead for the allied military government of occupied territories when the allies enter Naples, for AMG will have the responsibility of bringing order out of the chaos of destruction, fear and hunger into which Naples has been plunged.

PRESIDENT DRAFTS MESSAGE ON FOOD

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20—Congressional leaders reported after a conference with President Roosevelt yesterday that he expects to send congress a message on "the food situation" in the near future.

Senate Majority Leader Barkley, asked whether the message would deal with the subsidy program, replied it would embrace "the whole food situation and farm production situation for 1944."

With Barkley at the White House were Vice President Wallace, Speaker Rayburn and House Majority Leader McCormack.

Barkley said the discussion included several other subjects, among them the Fulbright resolution, now before the senate, which would put congress on record for full American participation in post-war planning. Barkley said there was "just a general discussion" of the resolution.

Newsman Finds Marion Man In U. S. Garrison at Italian Town

By Robert G. Haynes on Guard Duty as Correspondent Tours Portion of Italy in Allied Hands.

Soldier, Pvt. Robert Kennedy, a white-haired man, was captured by American troops in a battle near the town of Salerno, Italy. He was found in a line of American troops, and he was the only one of his kind in the line. He was found in a line of American troops, and he was the only one of his kind in the line.

There was not a village, no matter how small, without at least one resident who had been to America and spoke broken English. At Acquafredda, a white-haired man said, "My name Jimmy Gordini. I work eight years copper mine. Butte, Montana, then I go to big rest copper mine in world, Arizona. I get brother, Tony Gordini. He works on cattle ranch at Los Angeles. I no like Mussolini. Gee, what, how I no like Mussolini."

Looking for Sons
At San Sost 13-year-old Ruggero Aragone scrutinized us. He explained he was looking for his sons Gennaro and Eduardo who ran a hotel in Los Banos, Calif., and who, he believes, are now in the American army.

At Lauria, a mountain town whose male residents are almost all stone masons, we met Alfred Henle, a German Jew who lived in Milan 20 years. He said the Fascists interned him in this village at the request of the Germans. Since then he has received one package of food sent by his sister, Rose Henle, 838 West End Ave., New York City, which took six months to arrive.

Hundreds in the villages asked us for word of relatives and prisoners of war and waved letters for us to take to them, while others said that now that the war was over they would like to go to America immediately, since they heard that wages were high there and asked us to take them along.

The village priest at Sessa Cilento, Father Manfredi Merola, asked us if we had heard of his brothers, Lorenzo and Carmello.

Text of Story
The text of Kennedy's story about his Italian tour, written for the Allies at Taranto, Italy, on Sept. 20, follows:

A trip of several hundred miles from Salerno to the Adriatic coast area shows southern Italy to be disorganized, somewhat battered and facing serious food and transportation problems. I saw no evidence of starvation, however, nor even any serious cases of malnutrition.

The population is friendly—all friendly in fact and the majority feeling that they are now on the Allied side and entitled to share the benefits from this happy state of affairs is making the occupation problems more rather than less difficult.

Railroads are not running except for a few stretches which the Allied armies have reopened for military purposes. Stores and other public services are at a standstill.

Many thousands of Italian soldiers have broken ranks and clutter the roads as they walk toward their homes a hundred miles away, hoping to pick up something to eat each day. Many of them follow the railroad tracks as the most direct routes, trudging through tunnels which are easier to follow than climbing mountain passes.

The homes of many are in areas still under the German occupation. Two soldiers who made their way from Calabria to the Salerno area and then found the path to Turin blocked by the front took jobs in a British supply depot.

Bridges Blown Up
Our trip was a slow one. Blown up bridges and other demolitions forced us to turn back and detour many times.

In the hamlet of Celso the word had spread that the Eighth Army was approaching. The Eighth Army's fame had reached even this mountain village and the townsfolk were out in their best clothes to welcome the triumphant force. They had baked a cake as a present.

We—three correspondents, a British guards officer and an American sergeant in a truck and trailer—were the only ones to show up so they made a presentation speech and gave the cake to us. It was difficult to take it from people to whom that much food and sugar meant a sacrifice. It would have been even more difficult to refuse it. They said "Buona Notte" (Good Night) as we drove off.

In many other villages, the populace was on the taking rather than the giving side, clamoring for cigarettes, food and anything else we had.

who work in a New York bank. The wheat crop already had been harvested, hay and feed corn having been stored for the winter, and tomatoes, peppers, apples, melons and figs having been picked. The grapes hang heavy on the vines and the olives are beginning to be seen. Almost every farm, even in bleak mountain areas, has a few chickens and a pig or two, while in the valleys cattle graze.

But in the larger towns the situation is more serious, due mainly to the paralysis in transportation which may take a long time to unravel.

Under Shellfire
We were under German shellfire as our tortuous trip took us near the front areas and we saw many battered towns and villages. At Lagonegro, high in the hills above Salerno, the Germans had concentrated much armor and stand by withdrew under devastating bombings, destroying many vehicles, which they could not take with them.

At Valle Della Lucania, townsfolk said that 20 persons were killed two days previously when American fighter bombers, intercepted over the town by German fighters, jettisoned their bombs to take on the enemy planes.

Many other towns, however, show no scars of war. Those which have suffered from bombardments are mainly those having strategic rail and road bridges. Throughout the trip the townsfolk said the Germans were surly toward the Italians in the final six months to arrive.

withdrawal and looted wine and other supplies.
A week of contact with a people who were without any apparent determination to defend their own soil and homes, and who now want to jump on the winning side of the bandwagon, has tended to lessen the respect of soldiers for the local population, though they still are treating them kindly.

Invasion Welcomed
The prevailing attitude of southern Italians, who throughout history almost always have been governed by outsiders, is that they're glad the Fascists are out and the allied occupation is just one more invasion and one with good prospects, as invasions go, since the invaders are wealthy and there may be some handouts.

The peasants in general want to be allowed to do their work and hope the Fascist tax burden will be reduced. The aristocrats, who never have done much to improve the condition of the masses, regard the occupation as a great inconvenience and can't see why the allies should not let them alone, now that Italy has capitulated. They argue again: the army's requisitioning of any of their property and make it clear that in case of requisitioning they expect prompt and generous compensation.

Few long range preparations were made to defend southern Italy. The coastal defenses are ludicrous and road signs and milestones were all left in place to make it all the easier for the invaders to find their way about.

Some townsfolk in Taranto cited this as evidence of Italian friendship for the allies, while one views the opinion that allied occupation automatically conferred American citizenship on him. He asked to go to New York by the next boat.

Mountain villages southeast of the plain of Paestum now are patronized by American troops. Asked how they were getting along with the locals, one officer said, "Oh, it's the same old story. They all say how brave we are and all that I suppose they said that to the Germans."

Sees Marion Soldier
Among these was Pfc. George Rauner, 138 East Broadway, Toledo, who is of Czech origin and speaks six languages. Others we met on guard duty in the villages included Pvt. Robert G. Haynes, Marion, O.

The last time I was in southern Italy was in 1939 when the region was bustling with preparations for war. Everything was very Fascist then. Almost all visible traces of Fascism now are obliterated. It would be a mistake to say that Fascism has been eradicated because, so far as southern Italy is concerned, it now is evident that it never had any roots but was a parasitic growth on the surface. This growth has thrived up and died and southern Italy has returned to its carefree existence or at least as carefree as possible in these trying times.

The peasants in general want to be allowed to do their work and hope the Fascist tax burden will be reduced. The aristocrats, who never have done much to improve the condition of the masses, regard the occupation as a great inconvenience and can't see why the allies should not let them alone, now that Italy has capitulated. They argue again: the army's requisitioning of any of their property and make it clear that in case of requisitioning they expect prompt and generous compensation.

Few long range preparations were made to defend southern Italy. The coastal defenses are ludicrous and road signs and milestones were all left in place to make it all the easier for the invaders to find their way about.

Some townsfolk in Taranto cited this as evidence of Italian friendship for the allies, while one views the opinion that allied occupation automatically conferred American citizenship on him. He asked to go to New York by the next boat.

Mountain villages southeast of the plain of Paestum now are patronized by American troops. Asked how they were getting along with the locals, one officer said, "Oh, it's the same old story. They all say how brave we are and all that I suppose they said that to the Germans."

The last time I was in southern Italy was in 1939 when the region was bustling with preparations for war. Everything was very Fascist then. Almost all visible traces of Fascism now are obliterated. It would be a mistake to say that Fascism has been eradicated because, so far as southern Italy is concerned, it now is evident that it never had any roots but was a parasitic growth on the surface. This growth has thrived up and died and southern Italy has returned to its carefree existence or at least as carefree as possible in these trying times.

A week of contact with a people who were without any apparent determination to defend their own soil and homes, and who now want to jump on the winning side of the bandwagon, has tended to lessen the respect of soldiers for the local population, though they still are treating them kindly.

Invasion Welcomed
The prevailing attitude of southern Italians, who throughout history almost always have been governed by outsiders, is that they're glad the Fascists are out and the allied occupation is just one more invasion and one with good prospects, as invasions go, since the invaders are wealthy and there may be some handouts.

NEW JAP PLANE BETTER THAN ZERO

By The Associated Press
WASHINGTON, Sept. 30. The Japanese have come up with a new fighter plane more formidable than the Zero, Senator Brewster (R-Me.) disclosed today.

Brewster, one of three senators just back from a 42,000-mile swing over the world's battlefronts in an army plane, told an interviewer that the new "super-Zero" apparently was just getting into production because only a few had been sighted.

But those few, he indicated, had proved tough. He said the rate of American victories over losses which ran as high as 4 to 1, has begun to drop.

Until the appearance of the new Japanese model, Brewster said, U. S. fighters in the Far Pacific considered quantity more important than quality. Now,

Army and Navy Test To Be Given in Marion on Nov. 9

Qualifying tests for either the Army specialized training program or the Navy college V-12 program will be given Tuesday, Nov. 9 at Harding High school, Principal Albert C. May announced today.

Marion men interested in either examination are urged to obtain a pamphlet of general information describing both tests which are available at Harding High school. Contained within the pamphlet is an admission-identification blank which when properly filled out will admit to the test students between the ages of 17 and 24, inclusive, who are recent high school graduates or will be graduated by March 1, 1944.

In announcing plans for the test, which will be given throughout the country on Tuesday, Mr. May asked that men expecting to take the test get in touch with him so that necessary test supplies may be ordered.

The same examination will be taken by both Army and Navy candidates. The examination is designed to test the aptitude and general knowledge required for the program of college training and all qualified students are urged to take the test. At the time of the test each candidate will be given a choice of service preference, but taking the test does not obligate the candidate to enlist in the service.

The Army Specialized Training Program and the Navy College Program enable students to continue academic training at government expense following induction into the armed services. Successful completion of the prescribed courses may, following further officer training, lead to a commission in the Army or the Navy.

Those selected for the Army will, after further screening and basic military training, be sent to college. Students chosen for the Navy program, after selection by the Office of Naval Officer Procurement, will be detailed directly to college. Students who attend college under either of the programs will be under military discipline on active duty in uniform with pay. All expenses, including tuition, food, housing, books, and uniforms will be paid by the Army or the Navy.

Pajamas, Sweaters

Taboo for Women

in Cleveland Shop

By The Associated Press
CLEVELAND, Sept. 29 — Silk lounging pajamas are taboo at working garments at the Ohio Cranksheet Co.'s five plans here, the regional war labor board ruled today. So are sweaters. But slacks are mandatory for the women.

The board's directive otherwise was concerned with such matters as voluntary membership maintenance and dues check-off, sought by and granted the CIO United Automobile Workers union as representative of about 3,700 employees.

Taking cognizance of women's sartorial safety and masculine distinction, the WLB incorporated in its direction a settlement between the company and union on the most question of women's uniforms. It specified, in words of WLB announcement No. V-116:

"All uniforms must have short sleeves."

"No uniforms may have loose belts at the waist or flowing ties."

"Silk lounging pajamas may not be worn."

"All female employees must wear slacks."

"Sweaters may not be worn by female employees."

Asked about cotton or rayon lounging or sleeping pajamas, the WLB said these were not covered in its order, but that the intention was that all are banned.

Have women ever showed up for work in silk pajamas? Well, no, but the company wants to make sure they don't, an Ohio Cranksheet spokesman said.

Meningitis Death Rate

in Army on Decline

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, Sept. 30 — An army medical officer reported today there has been an "amazing reduction" in the meningitis death rate—from 39 per cent in the first World war to less than 3.5 per cent now—due entirely to new chemical treatment, principally the "Sulfa" drugs. Col. Henry M.
Thomas Jr., of the Fourth service command reported this in the

Missing Boy Found

Dead at Parents' Home

By The Associated Press

WARREN, O., Sept. 30 — A three-day search for seven-year-old Lewis Davis ended last night when the boy was found dead in a small icebox in the attic of the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs.
Frank B. Davis.

Police said they believed the child crawled into the lower compartment of the icebox and pulled the door shut after him. Coroner
J. C. Henshaw reported the boy had removed one shoe and apparently had used it to rap on the door in hope of calling attention to his plight.

NEWARK, O., Sept. 30 — Prison sentences totaling 80 years each

Samuel Shrider, both 23, on burglary and auto theft charges. They were recaptured after escaping from the Mansfield reformatory several weeks ago.

Civilian Defense Awards

Given Highway Workers

The first group presentation in Ohio of Civilian Defense awards for volunteer service was made at Delaware, Wednesday, when one hundred and twelve members of the Division 6 State Highway Department war and disaster emergency organization attended special ceremonies at the division office.

Norbert D. Eckert, civilian defense coordinator for the division, received the service bar award for 1,500 hours of unpaid civilian defense service. J. Perry Shumaker, division engineer; Eugene W.
Davis, assistant division engineer;
and Homer Herd, division supervisor, received the service bar awards for 1,000 hours of service. Clyde Porterfield of Waldo, Marion county superintendent of maintenance, representing the state highway employees in Marion county, received the award for 500 hours of volunteer service.
Other Marion county employees enrolled in the civilian defense unit will receive their awards at a later date, Eckert said.

SURE FIRE BOND SELLER

By The Associated Press

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., Sept.
30 — A local jeweler hit upon an almost sure fire war bond selling idea. He offered an alarm clock free to each bond purchaser and gave away 114 clocks as this city moved within $1,000,000 of its $2,745,000 war loan quota.

From where I sit...

by Joe Marsh

One of the best-liked farmers in these parts is Bert Childers.
And he has the best way of beating the man shortage, too.

Come husking time, Bert invites all of his farmer neighbors over to have a glass of beer.
When they ask politely
"Where's the beer?" Bert points to a bucket-full of frosty bottles in the middle of the field.

"All you got to do," he says,
"is work your way out to it."
Well, Bert's idea has caught on all over the countryside.

Folks are pitching in to help their neighbors harvest grain, and fruit, and vegetables — and are taking their reward in sociability when the job's done.

And from where I sit, that's a mighty healthy picture of American life — people working together to get in the food this country needs — and afterwards, sittin' around like good friends,
over a moderate glass of wholesome beer. I'm for it!

GROUP TO REPORT

ON BRITISH ACTIVITY

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30 — A critical report on British commercial and diplomatic activities may be laid before the senate in executive session by members of a five-man inspection committee which just returned from a 40,000 mile trip to the world's battlefronts.

While committee members declined to discuss publicly the phase of their extensive inquiries in the war zones, there were indications they felt that American diplomacy and economic activity are falling behind that of the British.

The gist of their complaint, it was said authoritatively, is that British postwar policies already are functioning in a practical way while American representatives are at a loss to know what this nation's attitude will be on many important world questions when the fighting is over.

As a result, the committee members were said to have found that the British stand to reap postwar benefits from many American lend-lease contributions to other countries.

Other views expressed by the returning senators were:
The war in the Pacific may not end before 1945, but Germany might collapse at any time, due to loss of oil territory in Russia, reverses in the Mediterranean, and failure of the submarine to establish an Atlantic blockade.

Plans should be worked out now for moving into Germany—after the collapse—to control the civil population and prevent chaotic conditions.

Our Army and Navy are developing into the toughest fighting machine the world has ever seen.

In the Pacific, Army and Navy are working in closest cooperation, but the area needs additional men and supplies.

The American people have not been given enough information about the seamy side of some of the American fighting.

Service men overseas asked most frequently—when do we go home? What delays our mail?
What about a job after the war?
Are we going to be allowed to vote while overseas?

Folks at home still don't appreciate how dangerous Japan is.
(The senators heard in the Far East that Japan is building 1,000 battleships a month instead of 500, as generally believed, and has doubled her ship-building capacity.)

Cabbage Roll a Point Saver

By BETSY NEWMAN

Don't forget the Stuffed Cabbage Roll when you're looking for point-saving and filling dishes to serve family or friends upon occasion. I think a molasses Apple Betty will just about put the finishing touch to this menu.

MENU:

Stuffed Cabbage Roll, Buttered Beans, Mashed Squash, Tomato and Cucumber Salad, Molasses Brown Betty, Coffee.

Stuffed Cabbage Roll.

1 small head cabbage, 1 lb. ham-burger, 2 tps. chopped onion, 1 tsp. celery seed, 1 c. cooked rice, 1 egg, beaten, 1/2 c. milk, 1 tsp. salt, 2 tps. meat drippings, 1/2 c. water.

Core cabbage, wash thoroughly and cover with boiling water; let stand 5 minutes. Separate leaves, reserving 6 large ones. Combine meat, onion, celery seed, rice, egg, salt and milk. Place spoonful meat mixture on each large leaf; fold over and fasten with toothpicks.

Brown in meat drippings, add water, cover with remaining cabbage, cover and simmer 1 hour. Serves 6.

Molasses Apple Betty.

2 c. soft bread crumbs, 3 c. thinly sliced apples, 1/4 tsp. lemon juice, 3 tps. butter, melted, 1/4 c. water, 1/2 c. molasses, 1 tsp. grated lemon rind, 1/4 tsp. nutmeg, 1/4 tsp. cinnamon.

Blend melted butter (or margarine) with the crumbs. Put one-third of mixture into buttered baking dish, top with one-half the apples. Combine molasses, spices and lemon rind and drizzle half over apples. Another layer of crumbs, another of apples and sweetening and a final one of crumbs. Pour liquids over all, cover and bake at 375 degrees for about 30 minutes. Uncover and cook 15 minutes longer, until apples are tender and top is browned.

The humming bird is the only bird known to fly backwards as well as forwards.

Harding Plays at Galion Friday Night; St. Mary Meets Richwood Here

Orangemen Seeking Revenge Irish Gridders Hope To Keep Slate Clean

By CHARLES ELLIOTT

A series of football games, with a one-for-all, will be the first of the season for the Galion High football team. The team, which is coached by Coach LaRue, is expected to have a hard time winning after the loss of the 1942 season.

The team will play at Galion's home park, the Galion High school, on Friday night, Sept. 30, at 7:30 p. m. The opponent will be the St. Mary's team, which is coached by Coach Durocher.

The Galion team has been in the "doghouse" since the 1942 season, when they finished with a record of 1-10. The team is expected to have a hard time winning after the loss of the 1942 season.

Marion St. Mary's undefeated and one-titled football team will face the Tigers of Richwood High school at Harding stadium tomorrow night in a game which is expected to reveal to local grid fans one of the best eleven in the school's athletic history.

The Irish and the Tigers will average about the same in the fight of both line and backfield. However, because of their one-titled victory over Tiffin last Saturday night and their surprising feat of holding powerful Delaware Valley to a scoreless tie two weeks ago, the St. Mary's players are being rated as slight favorites to top the Union county team.

The Tigers in their only game thus far were puffed by the Upper Sandusky Rams two weeks back. The tough Rams were held scoreless in the first quarter by Luchwood but were unable to get a touchdown in each of the final three quarters.

Six lettermen and a few other boys who are described as "coming" to the Richwood roster.

The lettermen are Milligan, McAlister and Mattson in the backfield and Joe Zuppan and Davis in the line. Davis is only a sophomore while the other lettermen are juniors.

The Tiger squad is devoid of any seniors. Sonnet, the starting left tackle, is the Richwood outfit's heaviest with his 185 pounds. Dan Kelly, Irish center, tops his team with his better-than-200 poundage.

Although the Irish did not suffer any injuries in practices this week and all bumps and bruises have mended another menace, the common cold, seems to be a problem for Coach Lane McCrate. Two St. Mary's regulars, Ed Frank, Tabin and Brock John Wiley will not be in the starting lineup tomorrow night because of bad chest colds, which they think were caught following the Tiffin Calvert game last week.

Brother Takes Place In Tobin's place, will be nobody but his brother, Bob Tobin, who is a junior and a 163-pounder. Will-o-the-wisp will fill Wiley's slot in the backfield according to Coach McCrate.

Bob Tobin will have an especially difficult assignment of trying to approximate the sterling end play of his brother last season. Frank was the boy who snugged the touchdown pass against Calvert last week.

Both Frank Tobin and Wiley have missed all practices this week but undoubtedly will be in uniform for tomorrow night's contest.

Danny McGinnis, stellar Irish tailback, who received a broken nose in the Tiffin game has been able to participate in drills this week but probably will be forced to wear a noseguard for the Richwood game.

Last night Coach McCrate zipped his boys through a tough hour-and-a-half scrimmage at the Lincoln park fall field. Defense and downfield blocking, an outstanding weak point with the Irish against Tiffin, were stressed in the workout.

The Richwood High team is coached by Richard Fetter, who is in his second season as head pigskin leader.

Tag Team Event Feature of Tonight's Mat Card The Canadian team of Frankie Hart and Rene LaBell will oppose Ali Pasha and Rufus Jones, in a tag team match featuring tonight's Armory wrestling program.

To round out the program Matchmaker Fishbaugh signed a pair of newcomers—Angelo Martinelli of New York City and Whitey Walburg of Rochester, Minn.—for the one hour semi-final match. The opener is slated to start at 8:30.

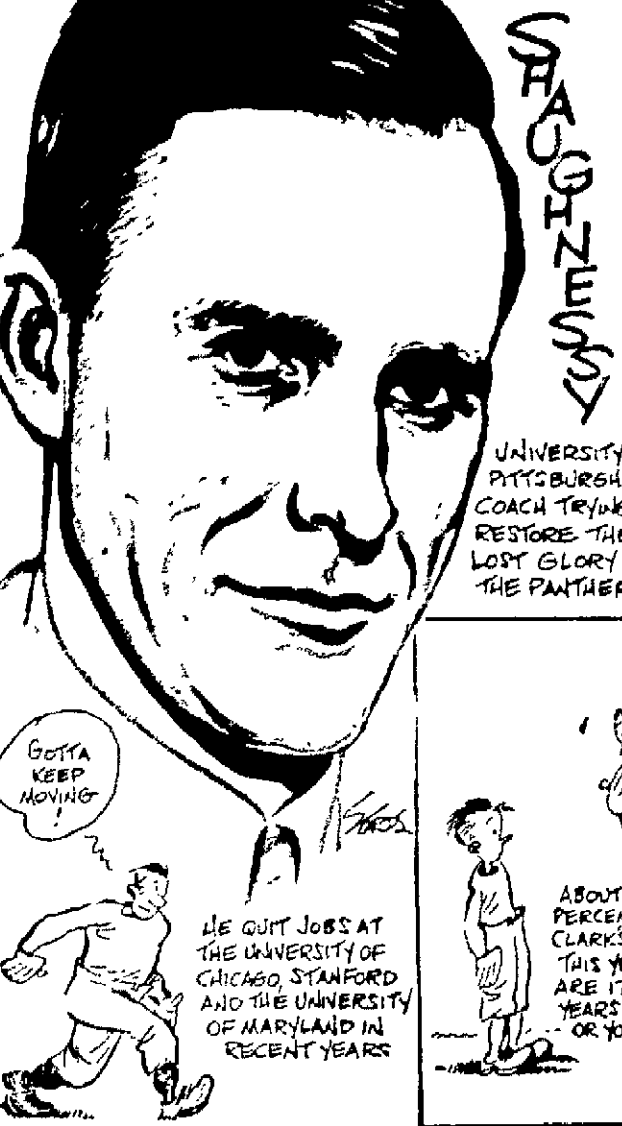

FIGHTS LAST NIGHT SYRACUSE, N. Y.—Tami Mauer, 187, New York, stopped Gunn and Bathand, 203, Finland.

Season Opens on Managers

By The Associated Press The baseball season may be closing, but the open season on managers is just starting.

In fact, it might be said to have begun yesterday with some double talk by Branch Rickey, president of the Brooklyn Dodgers, who announced that he was giving Leo Durocher his outright release as player-manager although he may later consider him for a bench manager.

Rickey explained to a press conference at Pittsburgh that "I have not thought of hiring any one other than Durocher, but by giving him his release he will both be free to talk about next year without any feeling of compulsion on either side. If he wants to make a connection elsewhere, either in baseball or radio, in the movies, he will be free to do so."

The last reference apparently was to report that Durocher might become an actor's agent in Hollywood. But the whole substance of Rickey's remarks seemed to be that he had opened the door for Durocher to leave, either under his own power or otherwise.

His Fifth Season Durocher now is completing his fifth season as manager of the Dodgers, during which time he thus won one National league pennant and never finished out of the first division. He is paid a reputed $25,000.

Before making his announcement Rickey watched the Dodgers score nine runs in the eighth inning to beat the Pirates 14-7 and oust Pittsburgh from third place. The St. Louis Cardinals clipped the Boston Braves 3-2. Rookie Brazie was unimpressive in gaining his eighth victory. He gave nine hits, walked six and fanned one.

Johnny Vander Meer pitched the Cincinnati Reds to a 3-0 decision over the Phillies with a four-hit performance and the New York Giants battled 14 innings to a tie.

County Schools Map Cage Play

Red Birds Now Go After Third Little World Series Title

By The Associated Press COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 29.—The American Red Birds today announced plans for the 1943-44 season, aiming at the county's 12 high schools.

At a recent meeting the committee voted to return to the old style of league play abandoned last year as a result of a conversion to the split league system. The split league system was dropped in this year because the committee was of the opinion that it was lost in the split-up program last year.

Mr. P. H. Smith, president of the county championship, said the last season required an acceptance of an insurance company. The insurance company was a member of the War Relocation Authority, which was a member of the War Relocation Authority, which was a member of the War Relocation Authority.

Commenting upon the change, D. T. Mads, superintendent of the county school system, emphasized sports part as a home front morale builder. He said that "ever gasoline and tires would be used in a split league would be well spent. He said the one league tended to unite the county and resulted in increasing greatly the competitive spirit among county schools."

Members of Committee Members of the county athletic committee are Clayton M. Bardon of LaRue, chairman, H. C. Seacrest of Prospect, Paul E. Furniss of Agosta, A. B. Augenstein of Clardion, and W. E. Harrington of Kirkpatrick.

In announcing plans for the coming season which will be launched with a five-game bill of fare on Nov. 23, the committee announced the names of those who will serve as coaches this year. Of the 12 men who will officiate in the capacity of coaches, nine serve as superintendents of their respective schools and five were not coaches in the county last year.

New coaches include Frank Furniss, who succeeds Melvin C. Bernow as coach at Walden; Don C. Burton at LaRue, in place of C. D. Pilkington; Harry Alexander at Agosta in place of Paul Furniss; J. F. Bemiller at Meeker in place of Paul Sherck; and Herbert Moore at Martel in place of James McDonald.
